MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

Senate Chamber,
Austin, Texas, March 7, 1933.
Hon. Coke Stevenson, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sir: I am directed by the Senate to inform the House that the Senate has passed

S. B. No. 195, A bill to be entitled "An Act to apportion the State of Texas into congressional districts, naming the counties composing the same and providing for the election of a Member of the Congress of the United States from each district, and repealing all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith, and declaring an emergency."

BILL ORDERED NOT PRINTED

On motion of Mr. Bedford, House Bill No. 760 was ordered not printed.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON SENATE BILL NO. 184

Mr. Walker submitted the following conference committee report on Senate Bill No. 184:

Committee Room,
Austin, Texas.

Hon. Edgar E. Witt, President of the Senate, and Hon. Coke Stevenson, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sirs: We, your free conference committee, to whom was referred

S. B. No. 184, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend Article 1316, Chapter 1, Title 17, of the Penal Code of 1925, providing for the offense of an attempt to commit arson, and defining the same, making it unlawful; prescribing the punishment therefor at confinement in the penitentiary for from one to seven years; repealing all laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act; but saving prosecutions on indictment for offenses committed prior to the effective date hereof, and declaring an emergency,"

Have had same under consideration, and report it back with the recommendation that it do pass in the form of the attached bill and be printed:

"S. B. No. 184,

A BILL

To Be Entitled

An Act to amend Article 1316, Chapter 1, Title 17, of the Penal Code of 1925, providing for the offense of an attempt to commit arson, and defining the same, making it unlawful; prescribing the punishment therefor at confinement in the penitentiary for from one to seven years; repealing all laws and parts of the law in conflict with this Act; but saving prosecutions on indictment for offense committed prior to the effective date hereof, and declaring an emergency."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Article 1316, Chapter 1, Title 17, of the Penal Code of 1925, be, and the same is hereby, amended to read hereafter as follows:

"Any person who wilfully attempts to set fire to, or attempts to burn, or who shall aid or counsel in such attempt, or who shall attempt to procure the burning of buildings or property, such as are mentioned elsewhere in Chapter 1, Title 17, of the Penal Code of 1925, or any person who shall place or distribute any inflammable, or explosive, or combustible material, or any substance of whatsoever kind or character, or any article or device in any building or property mentioned in the said Chapter 1, Title 17, of the Penal Code of 1925, in an arrangement or in preparation with wilful intent to eventually set fire to, or burn, said building, or property, or to cause said property or building to be burned, shall be guilty of an attempt to commit the offense of arson, and shall, upon conviction, be sentenced and confined in the penitentiary for not less than one year nor more than seven years."

Sec. 2. Nothing in this Act shall affect prosecutions upon indictments now pending or hereafter returned for offenses committed prior to the effective date of this Act, all of which shall be preserved as if this Act had not been passed.

Sec. 3. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 4. The fact that Chapter 82, Acts of the Forty-second Legislature, Regular Session (an Act to amend Article 1316, of the Penal Code of 1925), has been declared unconstitutional by the Court of Criminal Appeals, and the further fact that very much property in the State is being wilfully destroyed to the great damage of the public, and the present laws insufficiently described an attempt to commit the offense of arson, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule, requiring that bills be read on three several days in each House, be suspended, and said rule is hereby suspended, and that this Act shall be in force and take effect from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

Respectfully submitted,

On motion of Mr. Harman, by unanimous consent of the House, the caption of House Bill No. 227 was ordered amended to conform to changes made in the body of the bill.

TO MEMORIALIZE CONGRESS IN REGARD TO THE PASSAGE OF CERTAIN BILL

Mr. Tarwater offered the following resolution:

H. C. R. No. 44, Proposing to memorialize Congress to pass Senate Bill No. 1197, known as the Frazier Bill.

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring:

Whereas, A crisis exists, and hundreds of thousands of once prosperous farmers in this Nation have already lost their homes and their all by mortgage foreclosures because of the fact that the price of agricultural products has for years been below the cost of production, a condition that affects all of the people of this Nation, and is largely responsible for the continuance of the depression; and

Whereas, There is no adequate way of refinancing existing agricultural indebtedness, and the farmers are at the mercy of their mortgagees and creditors; and

Whereas, Unless immediate relief is given, thousands and hundreds of thousands of additional farmers will lose their homes, and millions more will be forced into our cities and villages, and the army of unemployed will necessarily increase to alarming proportions, precipitating a condition that threatens the very life of this Nation; and

Whereas, The State Legislatures of Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nevada, Minnesota, Wisconsin, and Illinois have each and all memorialized Congress to pass Senate Bill No. 1197, known as the Frazier Bill, without delay, which bill provides that existing farm indebtedness shall be refinanced by the Government of the United States at 1½ per cent interest and 1½ per cent principal on the amortization plan.

Now, therefore, the Legislature of the State of Texas respectfully memorializes Congress to pass Senate Bill No. 1197 without delay, in order that the agricultural indebtedness of this Nation may be speedily liquidated and refinanced and agriculture saved from utter ruin and destruction, and this depression brought to an intelligent and speedy end, and respectfully requests that copies of this memorial, after same has been passed, be sent to the President of the United States, to the President of the Senate, and to the Speaker of the House, to Senator Frazier, at Washington, D. C., and to William Lemke, Congressman-elect, at Fargo, North Dakota.

TARWATER, ENGELHARD,
ALEXANDER,
HARRIS,
FAIN.

The resolution was read second time.

Mr. Coombes moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Federal Relations.

On motion of Mr. Tarwater, the motion to refer the resolution was tabled.

Question then recurring on the resolution, it was adopted.

RELATIVE TO LOBBYING

Mr. Adamson offered the following resolution:

Whereas, It is recognized that all those interested in legislation, including both individuals and all persons representing corporations, have the right to appear before committees of the Legislature and contact the individual Members of the Legislature, either for or against any legislation in which they or their clients are interested; and

Whereas, It is not desired to limit or curtail any constitutional privileges or rights to appear before committees of the House; and

Whereas, It is but fair and reasonable that the Membership of the House be advised of the character of the connections of those appearing for and against proposed legislation, including the heads of State departments and their employes; therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That as a condition precedent to appearing before any committee of the House, all persons employed by corporations as attorneys or representatives, including heads of State departments and their employes thereof, be, and they are hereby, required to file with the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives, to be kept as a permanent record, a statement, under oath in affidavit form, containing the following information which shall be open for inspection and examination at all times:

1. The name or names of all clients, persons, or corporations which they represent, who are or may be interested in pending or proposed legislation.

2. If a corporation or corporations, the name and address of such corporation, giving the name and address of at least one Texas official thereof.

3. A statement of the character of legislation in which such clients are interested. And, be it further

Resolved, That all the heads of State departments, agents, and employes thereof, shall be, and the same are hereby, prohibited from attempting by personal contact or otherwise, to influence individual Members of the House, concerning matters of pending or proposed legislation which concerns their respective positions and departments; provided, however, that they shall have the right to appear for or against any proposition in which they are interested before any committee of the House in which such legislation may be pending and present their views in regard thereto.

ADAMSON,
BARRON.

The resolution was read second time.

Mr. Jones of Atascosa moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on State Affairs.

The motion prevailed.

TO INVITE EDDIE CANTOR TO ADDRESS THE HOUSE

Mr. Dunagan offered the following resolution:

Whereas, Mr. Eddie Cantor, whom we have enjoyed so much in the ever-inspiring picture, "The Kid From Spain," and in many other startling features, starring Eddie Cantor, the humorist of the century, will be, in the next few days, passing through the State of Texas, and will be visiting in the City of San Antonio, Texas, and is a man possessed of much information concerning the method of making all people laugh, and as what we all need at this time, above all times, is to let go our troubles and laugh, laugh, laugh; and

Whereas, The adage, that "Laugh, and the world laughs with you; cry, and you cry alone," is true, and it is much better that we laugh than cry or moan, and if there is anyone in the whole wide world that can make us enjoy living, it is the great actor, Eddie Cantor; and

Whereas, It is thought that information possessed and humor so abundant by this outstanding man would be of much benefit to the Members of the Forty-third Legislature, and all that is fortunate enough to come in contact with him; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the said Eddie Cantor be invited to address the House of Representatives, in Austin, at a time most convenient to him, and that the Speaker of the House send to him by wire this invitation.

DUNAGAN,
RENFRO.

The resolution was read second time.

The Speaker sustained the point of order.
